Customer Reviews

My 4 year old loves mazes and they are a great way to engage her in learning how to control her use of a pencil. These mazes are worth the buck, for sure. They vary in difficulty and yet allow for a small child to finish independently.

When I saw that the age recommendation was for 4-6 year olds I figured it would be challenging for my 3 year old. He loves to do mazes and likes the "tricky" ones. These ones just weren't tricky enough for him. He was excited when I first showed him the book, but he lost interest when he realized how easy they were. I think this book would be perfect for children who are just starting to do mazes.

Nice maze book for the preK set. It says preK through 1st grade, I think it would be way too easy for a first grader. My 3.5 year old enjoyed the mazes while on an airplane. They were a bit too easy for him, but he has been doing maze books listed for 6 year olds.

My son really enjoys these although they are more expensive than you can find at a discount store. The problem is, they are hard to find at a discount store all the time. So if you are desperate, I recommend paying the extra for your child's enjoyment

I got my daughter this maze book when she just turned 4. It was a bit over her head but she did them all anyway and had fun. I will get more as she gets older. A lot of fun and a change of pace from regular everyday home activities.

My 4 year old loves this book. It is challenging for him, but he still can manage to finish most of the mazes himself, so I am really happy with this purchase. However, if you have a smart 5 year old, I think this book might be a little bit easy for him.

My granddaughter and I love these books. She is five. I have taught her to find the passage with her finger before she uses the pencil and now she is a pro and she loves doing this and I love watching her.

I find that workbooks that range from preschool to 1st grade have such a wide range that they aren't as well put together. But my preschooler loves mazes and she highly enjoys this book!
