Synopsis

A non-stop collection of romance and smut! In the title story, Taizo the potter finds Shino wandering lost in the mountains and invites him back to his home. Wanting to help Taizo with his artistic block, Shino takes a hands-on approach with Taizo's rock-hard body. In "A Loving Household," we follow the story of an adorable house-hubby who has his hands full being salaciously loved by his new husband and stepsons. "Let's Go to the Proctology Clinic" chronicles a young man's first visit to his proctologist for a rather embarrassing problem. But when it comes time for his examination, he finds out he may be in too good of hands!

Customer Reviews

The art is beautiful indeed, but the manga was a total disappointment for me. I was hopping for a good plot, like one of those stories you read over and over again, but this wasn't anything like that. The plot was baaaaad, and that is if what ever this was could even be called plot..... "I really don't think so," this hold thing was about the two main characters having sex "practically"... I got to admit there was some back story, but that was it, plus it wasn't good, so yeah, this was bad! I'm really sad 'cause I wanted this manga to be as good as it look, but sadly it wasn't the case.

I've reading all of this artist's manages and all were uncensored except for this one. I love the raunchy sex but I felt like I was jipped because of those censors. Other then it was an ok read. Some of the stories could have went a lot further.

This is such dribble. Even the pure smut isn't enjoyable. The characters are detestable and downright laughable to the point where you grimace. This isn't even one story salvageable. I have read a LOT of yaoi manga series/one shots in my day and this is just atrocious. Save your money and look elsewhere.

If you want sex without plot, this is the story for you! I like more plot so I didn't really like it...
