This is a great series for young kids. My 5 year old loves dogs and this is his favorite series. It teaches about puppy/dog care, different types of dogs, dogs who have jobs, and the responsibility and maturity it takes to have a pet. I especially like the first few books where the Petersons learn to accept the fact that they can't have a puppy and why they are not ready for one yet.

Sometimes you just need a break from intense and violent books. I got this book when I was younger and first learning how to read. Just now I was searching through my library looking for something to read when I came across it. I started reading and soon my mind was filled with adorable puppies. I felt like the book left out some details and the characters weren't very developed, besides from being bossy, but otherwise it was a great story. The second you're introduced to Flash you immediately fall in love. What's not to like about puppies! I'm eleven now and the book took me about 30 minutes to read the book, but I enjoyed it and I'm sure you will too. •¶

My 6 year-old reads 2 of the Puppy Place books a week. I love that, although she is an advanced reader, these books are still very sweet and innocent. Ms. Miles doesn't use words like "stupid" or "moron" like you find in so many other books at this level.

My son ADORES dogs & this series is great. He is 9 and an avid reader. He can read these very quickly! I'm guessing they are slightly below his reading level, but he enjoys the stories so thoroughly that we still keep getting them :)
