Frenemy Jungle (GIRL POWER: Believe In Yourself)

Synopsis

Ashley likes hanging out with her small group of friends at school, but they aren't always nice—especially Marcy, who often says hurtful things. Ashley is confused about Marcy's indirect put-downs until she meets an unusual and wise teacher. Can this teacher help Ashley learn the difference between a frenemy and a true friend? This full-color story offers a unique approach to one of the most pressing problems of our time—relational aggression among tween girls. Included are easy-to-understand activities that foster self-reflection about relational aggression and teach girls how to create healthy, affirming friendships. There are printable activity pages available for this title at CounselingwithHEART.com Ages 8-12, Softcover, 40 pages Other titles available in the GIRL POWER: Believe in Yourself Series Cyber Friend? (cyberbullying) Friendship Tug-of-War (friendship exclusion) It's Good to Be Me (self-confidence)

Customer Reviews

Amazing book that anyone who deals with friendship challenges with girls needs to have. So many girls today are frenemies and treat one another poorly. This book is a great resource!
