Customer Reviews

My 20 month old daughter is so in love with Daniel Tiger that this has quickly become a new favorite in our house. We checked out the paperback version of this book from our library and it had more to it, but she has enjoyed this board book as well.

My 21 month old son loves Daniel Tiger, or "DT" as we like to call him. I like the DT books because they leave some room for improvisation. Sure, we read other books and stick to the written script, so to speak, but the DT books are fun because you can interject and sing songs from the DT show (if you are rabid fans, like in our house). It's nice to throw in a few "DING DING"s here and there. Good quality book. Nice colors, my son enjoys this.

We have several other Daniel Tiger board books, but this one not as well-made. The pages are not quite as thick, and a few of them are already peeling apart. There were also two pages that were slightly blurry or misprinted. I guess I can't expect too much from the price, but it is nice I have a board book that my son can handle himself without it falling apart

I bought my son the Daniel Tiger stuffed night time to go a long with this book. I absolutely love the message behind Daniel Tiger and the products. My son who is 4 seems to like reading 3 of his Daniel Tiger books every night lately. The I love Mom and I love Dad book my husband and I read him separately.

I can't say enough good things about Daniel Tiger, my three year old started watching and reading the books a year and a half ago and she still counts them among her favorites. The show has silly little songs about life and how to behave and she STILL sings them to me constantly when they apply and absolutely loves the stories! This book makes for a fun quick read right before bed ^, ,

Like all other Daniel Tiger items I have purchased for my grandson, this one is also adorable. The pages are vivid with color and nicely written. A really nice bedtime story that he just loves. He's 2 years old and Daniel Tiger is one of his favorites. I would recommend this hard cover book for your little one also.

My Daughter loves Daniel Tiger, and this book especially. The paperback books are pretty wordy, but this board book is more of a proper length.

We are HUGE Daniel Tiger fans in our house and this book corresponds with my daughters favorite episode! We read it nightly!
